The Office of Graduate Medical Education Presents

Publish Your Case Reports

- Learn HOW to WRITE a case report
- Understand WHAT IT TAKES to get PUBLISHED in peer-reviewed scientific journals
- Get EXPERT tips on BEST PRACTICES
- Have your QUESTIONS ANSWERED at the Q&A session

Date: Wednesday, September 23, 2015
Time: 4:30 p.m. - 6:30 p.m.
Location: Tower Auditorium

Muhammad Amer MD, MHS, FACP
Fellow in training
Cardiovascular Diseases
Howard University Hospital
Post Graduate Year - 6

QUESTIONS? Contact Young-Joo Lee, Senior Clinical Librarian at young-joo.lee@howard.edu
Not Published, Not Done
The Crucial Step
Disclaimer

Disclosure - None

Journal Editorial Activities

Peer Reviewer Activities (Selected)
Circulation, 2015 - current
Journal of Clinical Endocrinology and Metabolism, 2013 - current American Journal of Medicine, 2012 - current American Journal of Cardiology, 2012 - current Journal of Hospital Medicine, 2007 – current

Associate Editor
Journal of Pioneering Medical Sciences, 2011 –Current

Section Member
Prevention of Cardiovascular Disease
American College of Cardiology Member Section, 2014- Current Be Cognizant of ..

• Level/Stage of training
  - Selection of case(s)
  - Why your case
    - Presentation
    - Clinical finding
    - Intervention
  - Literature review

• Goal
  - Advancing career
  - Seeking administrative time off : )
  - Learning the art of scientific writing
  - Fun?

• Writing Style
  - Title
    - Rare/Unusual/Atypical...no good
    - Seek reviewers/readers attention
  - Brevity/Focus
  - Images/Graphs/histopathology specimen
Questions/Comments

Thank You.